

[REDACTED]

Dear Sirs,

Representatives from the George S. May Co. have been here for the last several weeks to help us with "Organization for Management with Incentives". The time spent has been very worthwhile. It has been refreshing to have a different set of eyes look at our business and make suggestions on how we can improve many aspects of our operation.

The representatives are very knowledgeable in their work. You can tell they have been to many different types of companies and have seen almost everything. I have appreciated that they have been so adaptable to [REDACTED]

I have been very satisfied with the work done by the representatives of George S. May Co. over the last several weeks. I feel that I have learned much and our Company will benefit from them being here.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

President
